MIDDLETOWN COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

YEAR IN REVIEW

DEAR MEMBERS

THANK YOU

Middletown Community Foundation is grateful to the hundreds of individuals, families, and companies who contribute to one of 300+ funds held by MCF. Your contributions support scholarships, community events, specific nonprofit organizations, and our competitive grantmaking program. Much can be accomplished when we give collectively.

2023 AWARDEES

HONORING OUR COMMUNITY'S FINEST

MEL WORBIS & MARY MAURER

The Mary C. Maurer Volunteer of the Year Award recognizes the extraordinary generosity of time and spirit given to community service by someone between the ages of 30 and 50. This year we recognize Melissa “Mel” Worbis. Mel has dedicated her adult life to providing professional and volunteer leadership in the community. She has been a member of the AAUW Middletown since 2005 and served for many years as Diversity Chair and lent her technical expertise to members using the internet and social media. Mel went on to serve as the youngest President of AAUW Middletown, leading the group through the height of the pandemic. Professionally, her passion for service shines through in the many ways she supports youth in our community as a teacher, mentor, and counselor. Mel’s commitment to the community is inspiring and worthy of recognition.

DUSTIN HURLEY, MIKE SCORTI, & SARAH NATHAN

The Roland P. Ely Jr. President's Award thanks an individual whose long-term impact on the foundation has been meaningful. This year we recognize Mike Scorti, who exemplifies honor, commitment, and dedication to our mission. A past president of the board of trustees, Mike was instrumental in launching the foundation's Ready! Campaign for early childhood education. He has served on just about every committee at MCF since 2004 - and still contributes today as a member of the nominating committee. We benefit from his wisdom at every meeting he attends. But his impact extends well beyond MCF. He was a longtime supporter of TV Middletown. He was a founding member of the arts festival and continues to mentor a new generation of civic volunteers in this effort. He continues to be actively involved with Middletown Rotary and serves on the board of Abilities First and the Hospital Foundation. We brings his lighthearted spirit and love of Middletown to each of these activities. We are grateful for all that he has done for MCF and our community!

SARAH NATHAN, JEFF BANKS (SON OF JACKY), & DUSTIN HURLEY

The Mary Jane Palmer-Nunlist "I Love Middletown" Award honors the community's "unsung heroes" who make significant contributions to Middletown's quality of life without receiving much recognition for their efforts. This year we honor Jacky Banks. A resident of Middletown for over 40 years, Jacky has served as a volunteer for numerous organizations including Junior Achievement, the Middletown Symphony Women's Association, Phi Beta Psi Sorority, the Bereavement Committee at Holy Family Parish, the Ohio Balloon Challenge, and many others. Jacky never refuses when someone calls her for help. Her love of Middletown and its citizens embodies the spirit of this award.
